

Maintenance Technician Food Industry

Netherlands (NL) : Zuidoost-Noord-Brabant

You are responsible for the organization's ultramodern machinery. (Preventive) Maintenance, solving malfunctions and attribute to the longevity of the machines.

Carrying out inspections based on maintenance planning / system

- Coordinate with colleagues about details or particularities of the relevant machine / installation.
- Collection of necessary parts and tools in the technical warehouse.
- Carrying out preventive maintenance and working on malfunctions ((dis) assembly, replacement and / or adjustment of parts using various (hand) tools.).
- Analysing the reported failure/malfunction by consulting a manual or colleagues.
- Assess available information, find out the cause of the failure and determine possible (temporary) solutions while keeping the stop as short as possible.
- Giving directions to colleagues with regard to more sustainable use.
- Testing of the machine and 'ready for use' delivery of the machine / installation.
- Establishing bottlenecks and improvement measures in the maintenance process.
- Delivering a contribution to the investigation and implementation of improvements in the maintenance process based on instructions from the supervisor.
- Record component data / work requests in the maintenance system.
- Registering used materials and hours and linking this to work assignment.

You have a completed vocational education in the field of electrical / cooling technology, supplemented with mechanical training.

- You have experience as a maintenance technician or mechanic in the technical (maintenance) department.
 - You have technical knowledge of the machines and installations in the food processing industry.
 - You are quality and service oriented.
 - Willingness to (over-) work in rotating shifts
- Minimum experience of 2 or 3 years as a maintenance technician in industrial facilities, preferably in the food sector.
- In possession of NEN 3140 is a plus (Operation of electrical installations - Low voltage).

HEALTH INSURANCE PROVIDED

ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED: including water, gas, electricity and internet bills

TRAVEL PROVIDED: one way travel costs to Holland. Daily travel expenses between house and work

Position type: Temporary to hire

Contract type: 6 month, Flexible, rotating shifts

Start date: asap

Job vacancy Id: WBS5010618