

Integral Project manager

Netherlands (NL) : Zuidoost-Noord-Brabant

You manage projects with a large multidisciplinary team of highly skilled, mainly technical experts, that's why we expect you to have mechatronic expertise as well as professional project management skills.

You are responsible for:

- The delivery of innovative mechatronic systems from development until manufacturing and customer acceptance.
- Delivering within boundaries as agreed in project assignment (time, quality, budget and scope).
- Leading the team on technical aspects in close cooperation with a System Architect assuring decision taking in the technical domain.
- Monitoring and control project progress including supply chain and manufacturing activities.
- Managing stakeholders: external customers as well as international stakeholders at various managerial levels and functional domain (T&D, business, manufacturing and others).
- Managing external partners and component suppliers.
- Applying the project management and development of the project management competency of the department.

Experience: At least 5 to 10 years experience as a project leader in a high-end environment, leading multidisciplinary development team(s).

You have knowledge of Design of Excellence.

Successful track record within equipment development projects.

You are a team builder and able to inspire, motivate and convince people.

You are pro-active, analytical, creative person with a "can do" mentality.

HEALTH INSURANCE PROVIDED

ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED: including water, gas, electricity and internet bills

TRAVEL PROVIDED: one way travel costs to Holland. Daily travel expenses between house and work

Position type: Temporary to hire

Contract type: one year contract Full-time

Start date: asap

Job vacancy Id: WBS5010818